The few pictures here will give an idea of these best bargains of 1905.

Dame Fashion Says: "Checks;" The Palais Royal Says: 35c, 59c, 75c instead of 50c, 75c, $1

Shepherd Checks are ordered—Check Satin Foulards, Check Louisine Silks, Check Taffeta Silks, Check Voiles, and Check Suitings of all kinds, combining black and white, navy and white, brown and white, green and white. The Palais Royal "buyer," Miss Boyle, is just from New York, and can talk of "checks" intelligently. Dressmakers are interested—and so are their patrons.

More New Silks at 59c Instead of 75c yard.

The news is reaching every home—the Palais Royal is offering newest 75c Silks at 59c. Tomorrow come newly beautiful 36-inch wide Foulard Silks, thousands of yards of plain and check Taffeta Silks, ten exquisite pieces of White Habutai and perspiration-proof Black Japanese Silks, 36 inches wide; a few pieces of rich Black Taffeta Habutai; best of Crepe de Chine and Chiffon Louisine, in black and all the wanted colors. The week opens with best of new 75c Silks at 59c.

Messaline Silk at 79c

It's $1.25 quality; it's the genuine imported Messaline. It's a mystery—it's wanted and scarce at $1.25, and it's here at only 79c a yard, in lovely shades of light blue, pink, reseda, tan, golden brown, navy, white, and cream. It's more of a surprise than the 75c silks here at 59c a yard. It'll prove more of a disappointment—no more of the Messaline Silk—not at 79c.

Mohairs at 49c

The fashionable and wear-resisting Mohairs are here in cream, plain colors, and embroidered dots, at only 49c a yard. 75c quality is only 59c, and $1 Mohair Melange is only 75c yard. Then comes the cotton edition—Mohair Lustre, at only 19c yard.

French Organdies, 19c

They are the sensation of the season—they compare favorably with the organdies being retailed at 37c a yard. The cloth is sheer, the designs and colors are as beautiful. Their beauty is better appreciated when comparison is made with cheap organdies made to retail at about 12c a yard. The saying is going around: "The Palais Royal is selling 37c French Organdies at 19c."

The New Laces

The newest Lace is in floral design, separable patterns. Awfully expensive, but little need be used and most effective results assured. Bargain spots dot this new $20,000 stock, and full prices do not always have to be paid. Dollars can be saved in the price of a Lace or Spangled Robe here at $12 to $35.

New Trimmings

For evening wear, are silver, gold, opalescent, and pearl bands, applique, and flouncing, up to 9 inches wide, at 25c to $5.50 yard. The new Persian Bands and one-side effects for vestings are 19c to $2.50 yard. The new Silk Braids are 5c to 39c yard. New Crystal and Metal Buttons, 15c to $3 dozen.

Waist Patterns

Only $1 and $1.50 for the new Shirt Waist Patterns, of heavy white wash goods and sheer lawn, with necessary embroidery and hemstitching for trimming. $3.98 to $5.50 for the Pure Linen and Batiste Patterns, hand embroidered, new Anglaise effect. For sale in Embroidery Department, where will be found the new Embroidery Medallions, 100 styles, at 5c to 25c.

Dress Findings

The Palais Royal is very proud of its Notion Department. It is the biggest in Washington—120 feet long. There's not one dishonest article among the hundreds of thousands here. "Featherbone," "Hicks" Shields, nearly all the best "notions" are introduced to Washington by the Palais Royal. Best—no fraudulent imitations here. Prices are no higher than elsewhere.

Six-Foot U. S. Flag and Fixtures for $1.35

It's a six-foot Flag, on an eight-foot hand-turned pole, mounted with varnished ball, truck, and half-yards. It's the size flag to hang from the window of private residence, hotel, or public building. It's complete with all fixtures—one or one thousand at $1.35 each.

This Palais Royal Coupon and 65c entitles bearer to one Cotton Bunting Flag, 6-ft. size. Good only for Monday, February 20, 1905.
